---- may makical rent circumstances.

A will help fund derecho recover

President Barack Obama

on cleanup. gular waste koanoke is schedule exists in Virginia, which opened up the use of federal tion that a major disaster

on Friday signed a declara-

Adams

to supplement and reimburse efforts by local and state gov-

gency Management Agency

funds through Federal Emer-

roanoke.com

overnment is to help Virrnment and ties recover the June 29 that blew eft 3 million ower during Roanoke is ent schedule ormal solid t wave.

repair or replacement of emergency work and the ernment. The aid had been Bob McDonnell through FEMA's Public Assistance Program, which reimburses local and state governments on a cost-sharing basis for requested by Virginia Gov. damaged facilities.

crews to respond to the storm; opening of cooling centers and shelters; debris ties can recover money spent on activation of emergency Under the program, locali-

of focusing removal; repairs to publicly owned property such as tems; and damage to electriroads, water and sewer syscal systems.

Radford, Roanoke, Salem and ford, Covington, Lexington, ties and the cities of Bed-Lynchburg, Martinsville, ingham and Tazewell coun-The declaration covers numerous localities in the Craig, Floyd, Giles, High-Roanoke, Rockbridge, Rockregion, including Alleghaland, Pittyslvania, Pulaski. Bland, Botetourt, Carroll ny, Augusta, Bath, Bedford Staunton.

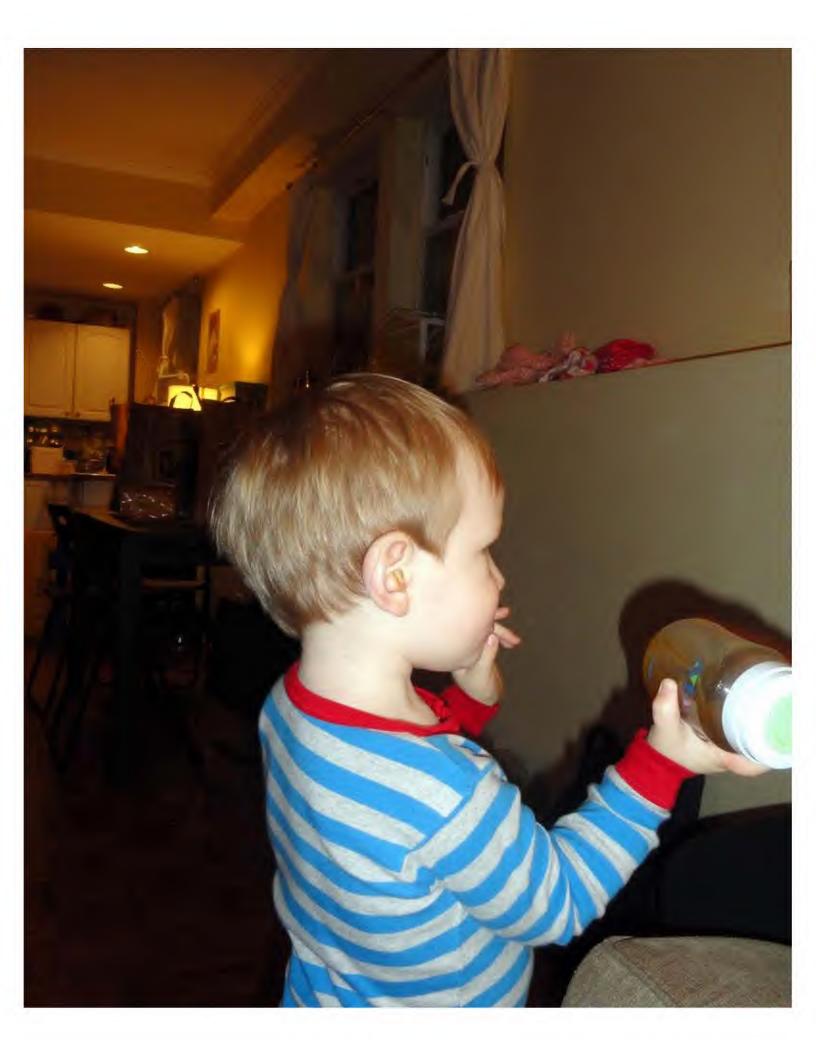

ment head Skip Decker said ule picking up large bulk items next week, but depart-Roanoke announced that its solid waste department will resume its normal sched-

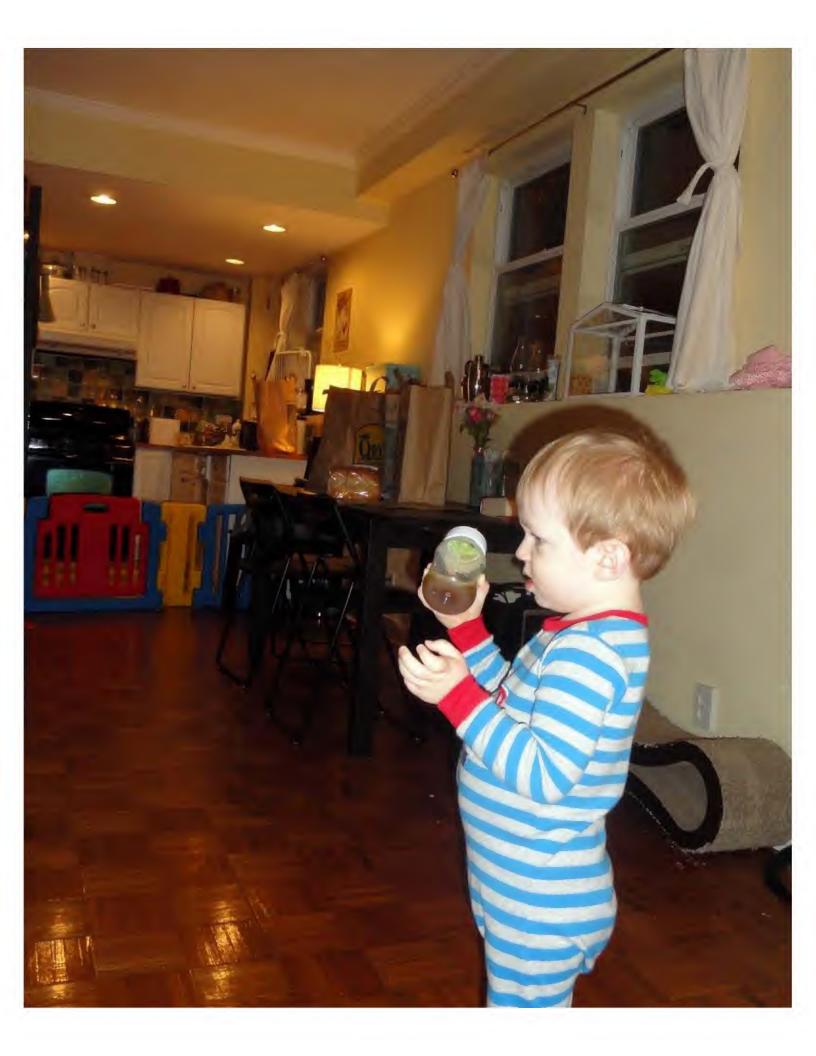

done cleaning up fron that doesn't mean the

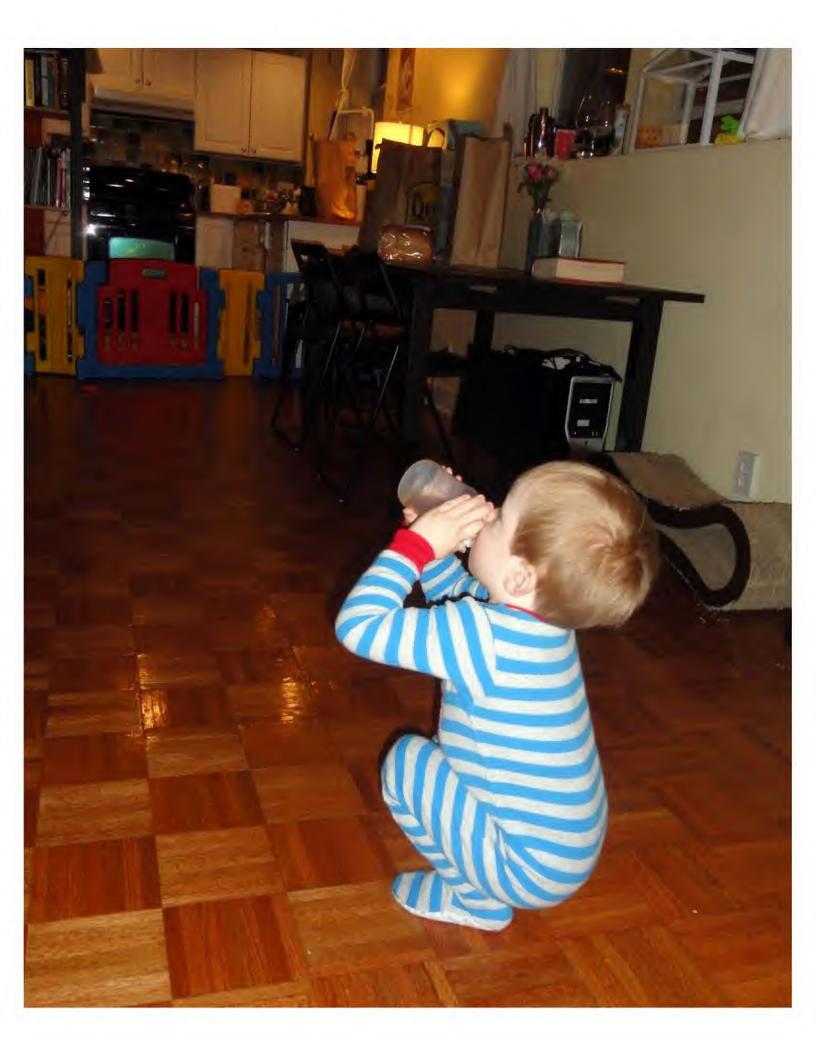

"This in no way mean done," Decker said, "We cleanup from the derec have to get back to our mal schedule."

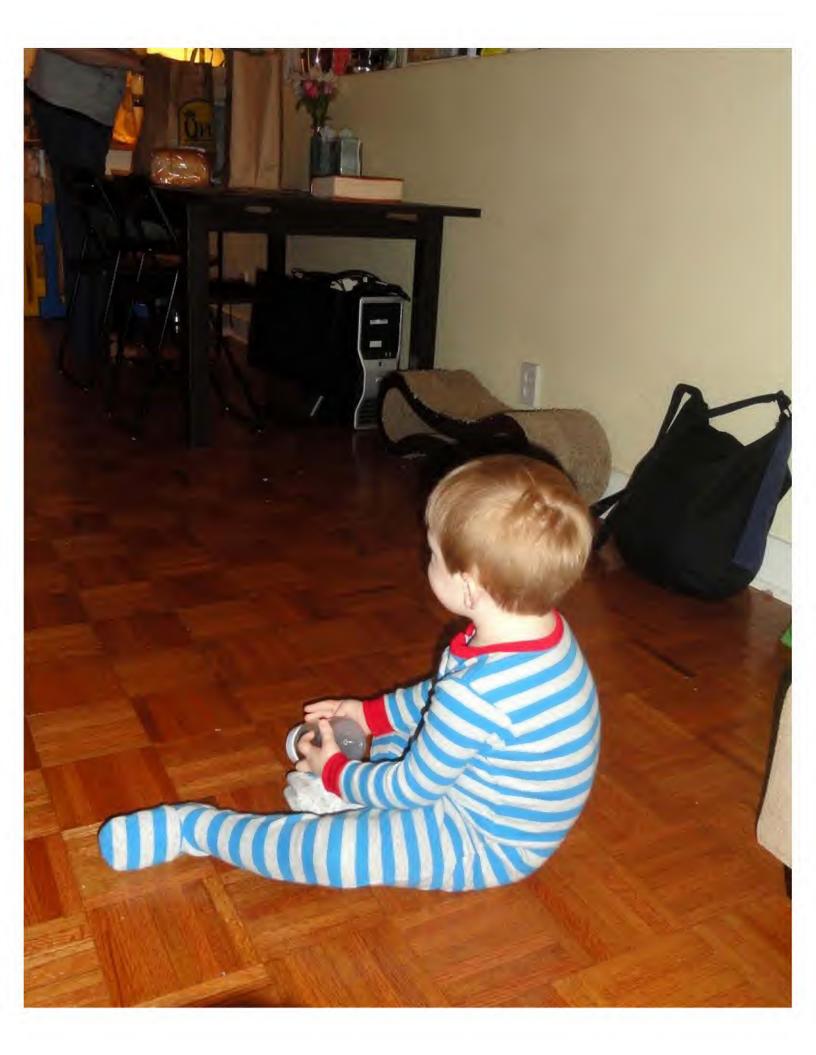

Decker said that over past four weeks, his der ment has picked up 2,071 of brush. "That's compared to 3 tons for all of last Decker said. "That's brush in four weeks."

The tipping fees fo by a number of city do ments for the initial res and later cleanup, wh hopes to recoup at le than $72,000, Decker That's on top of money collected brush total part from FEMA

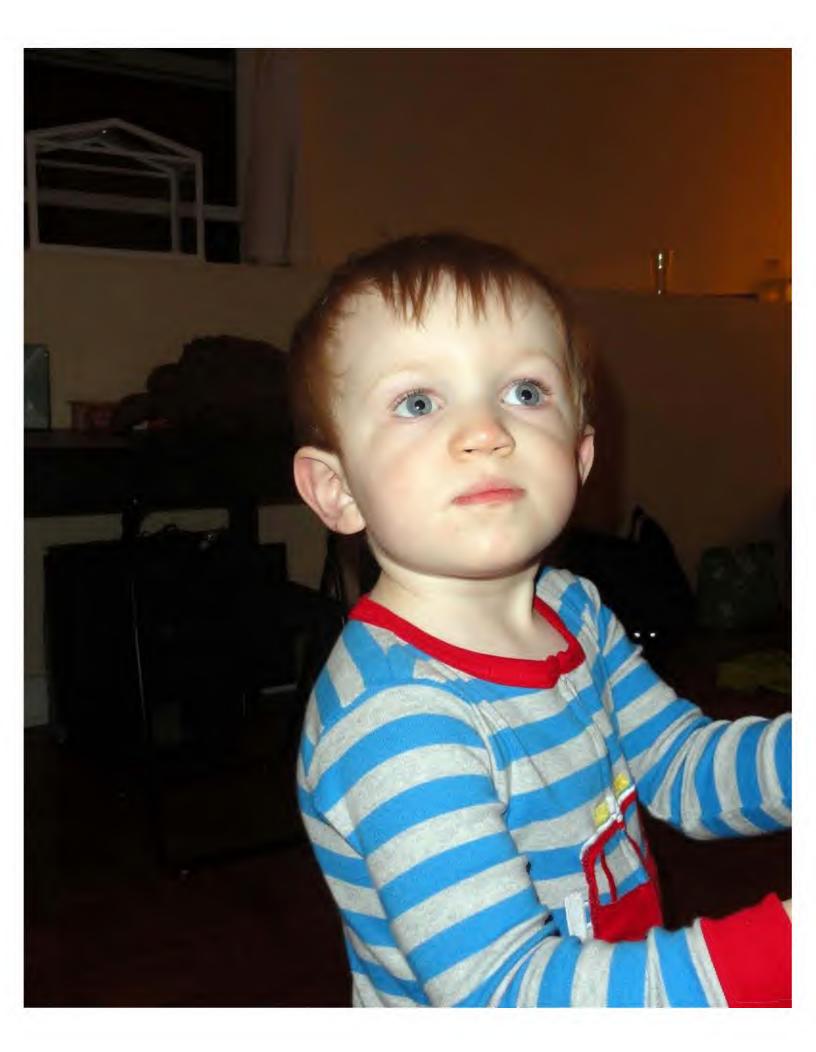

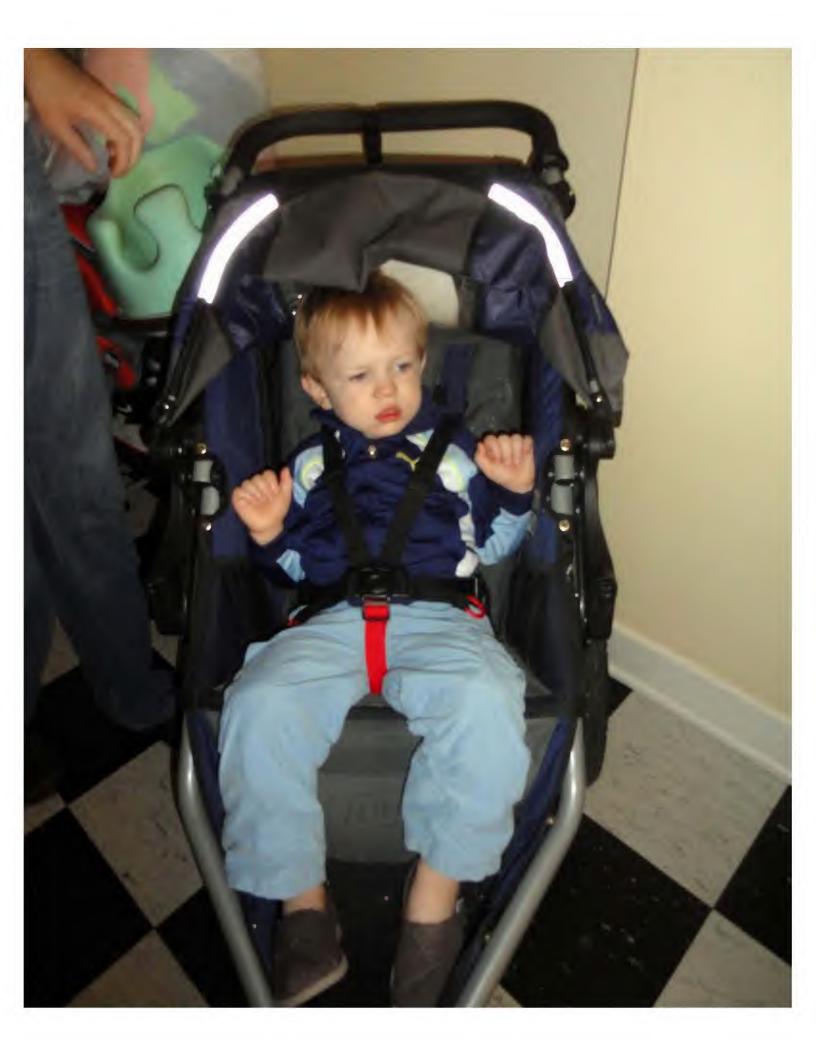

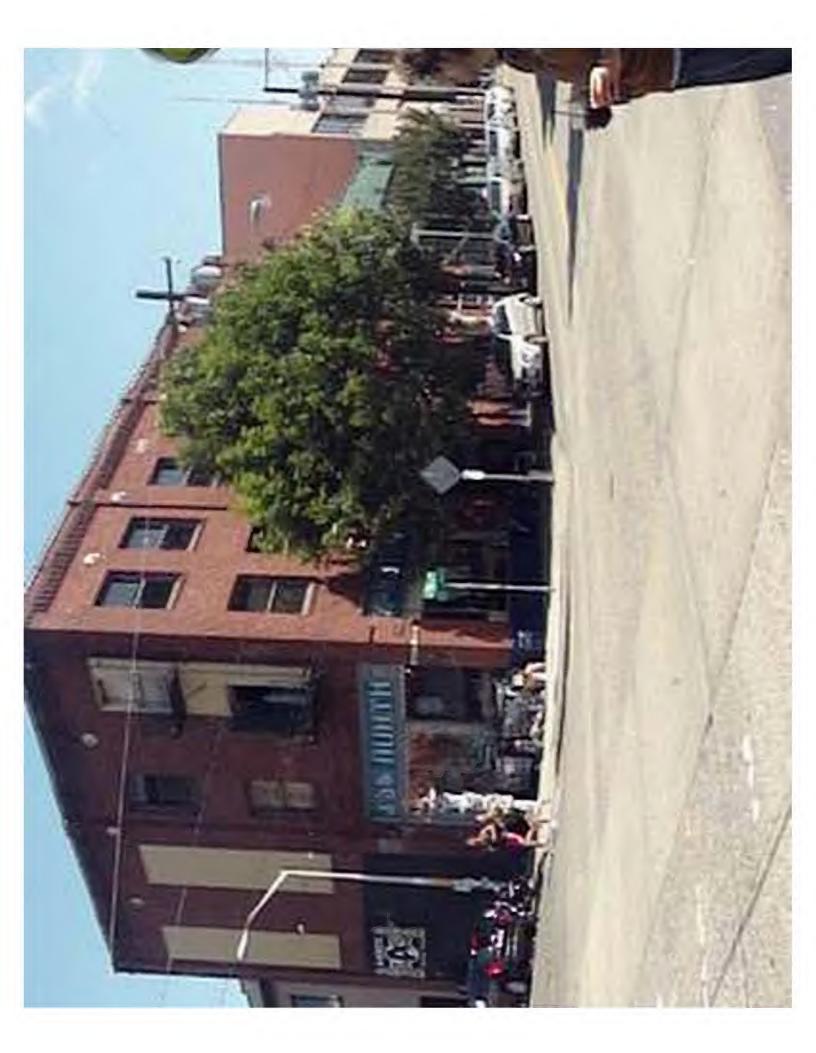

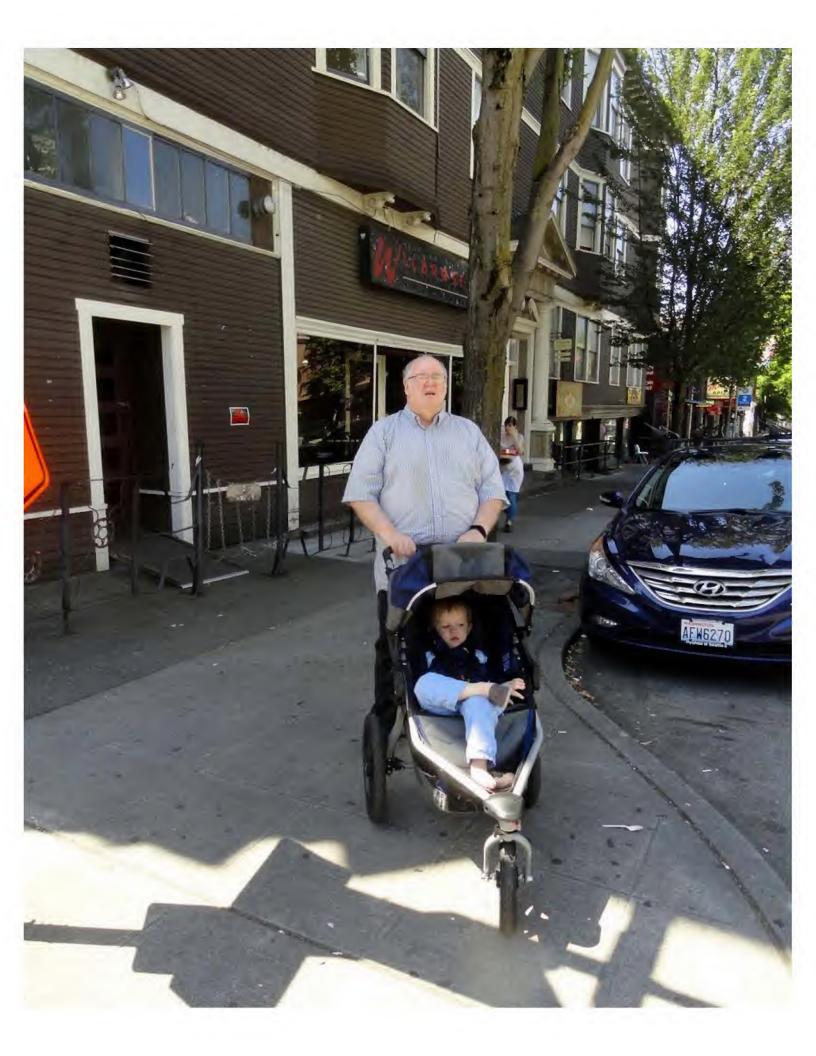

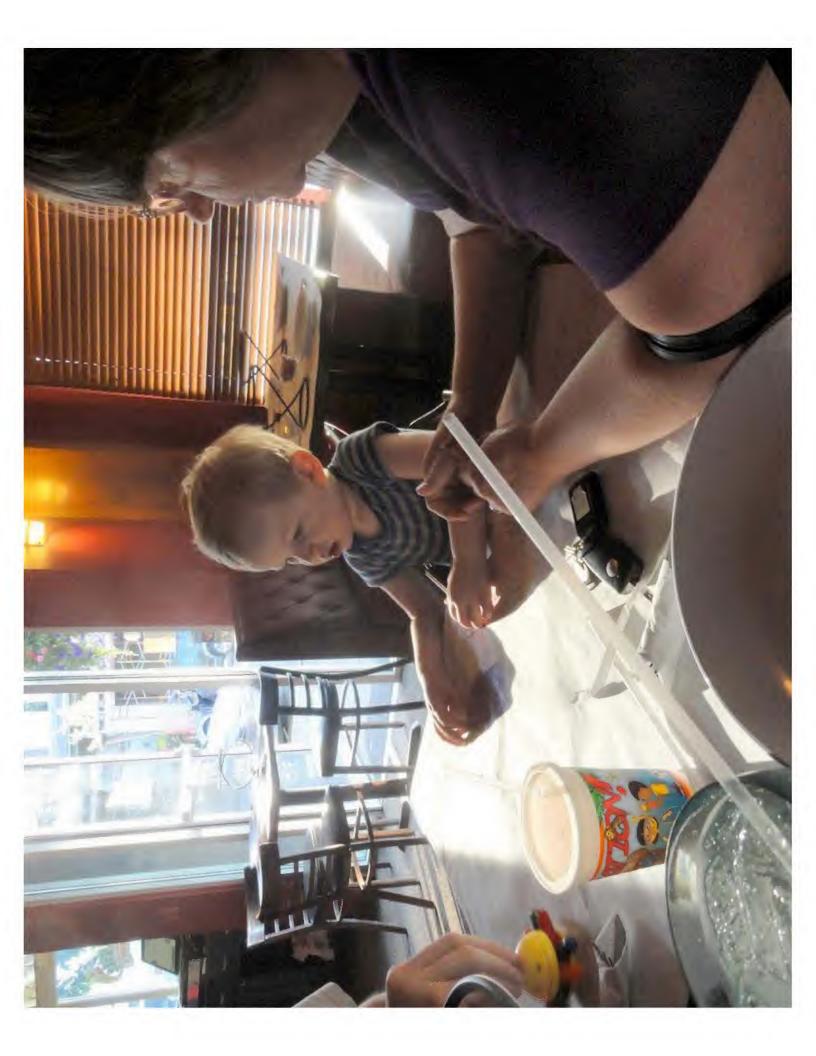

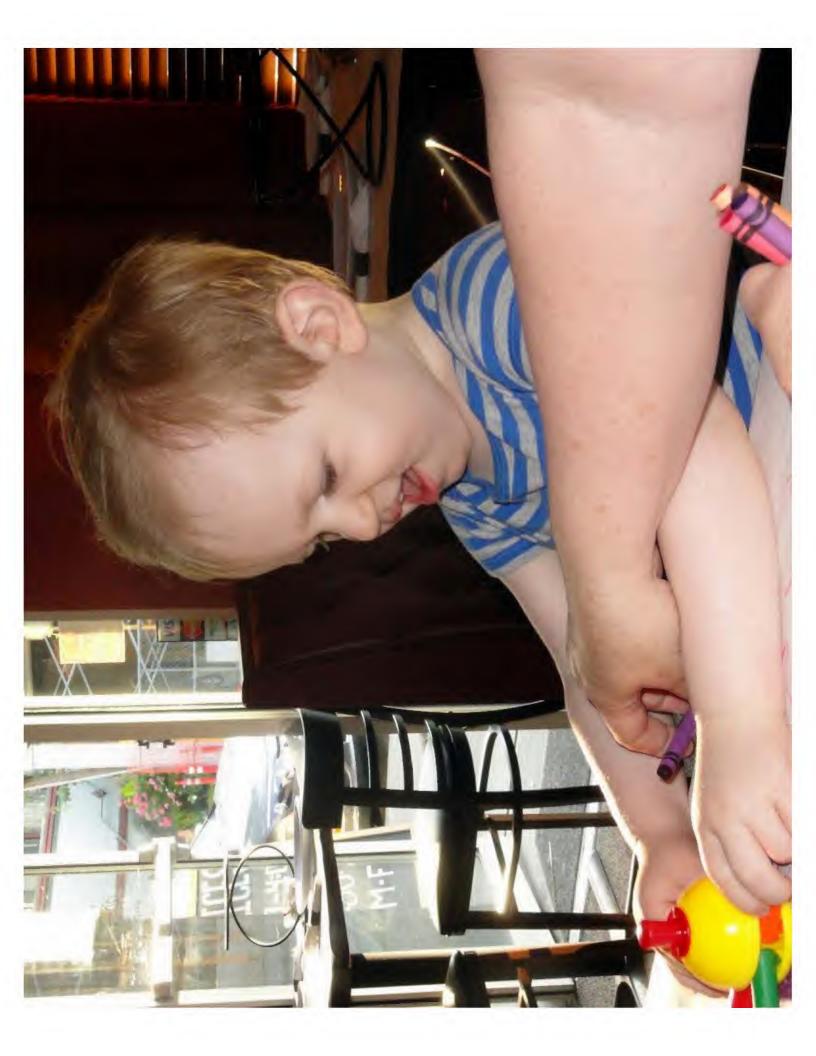

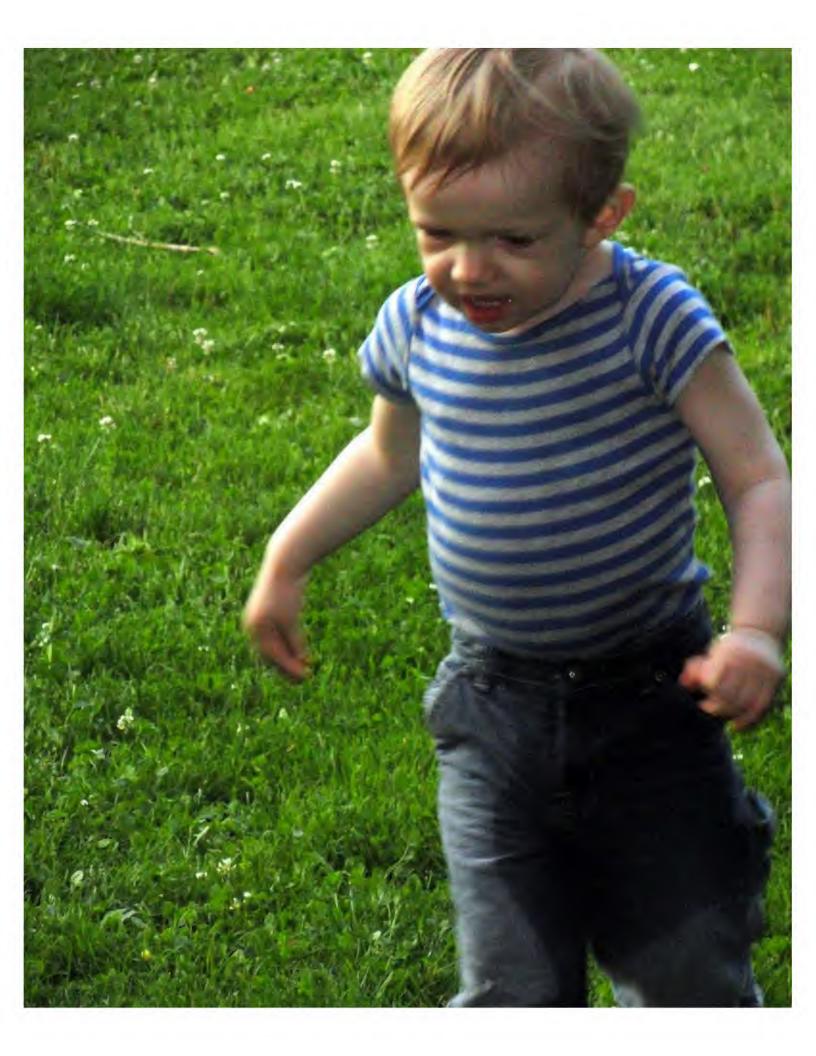

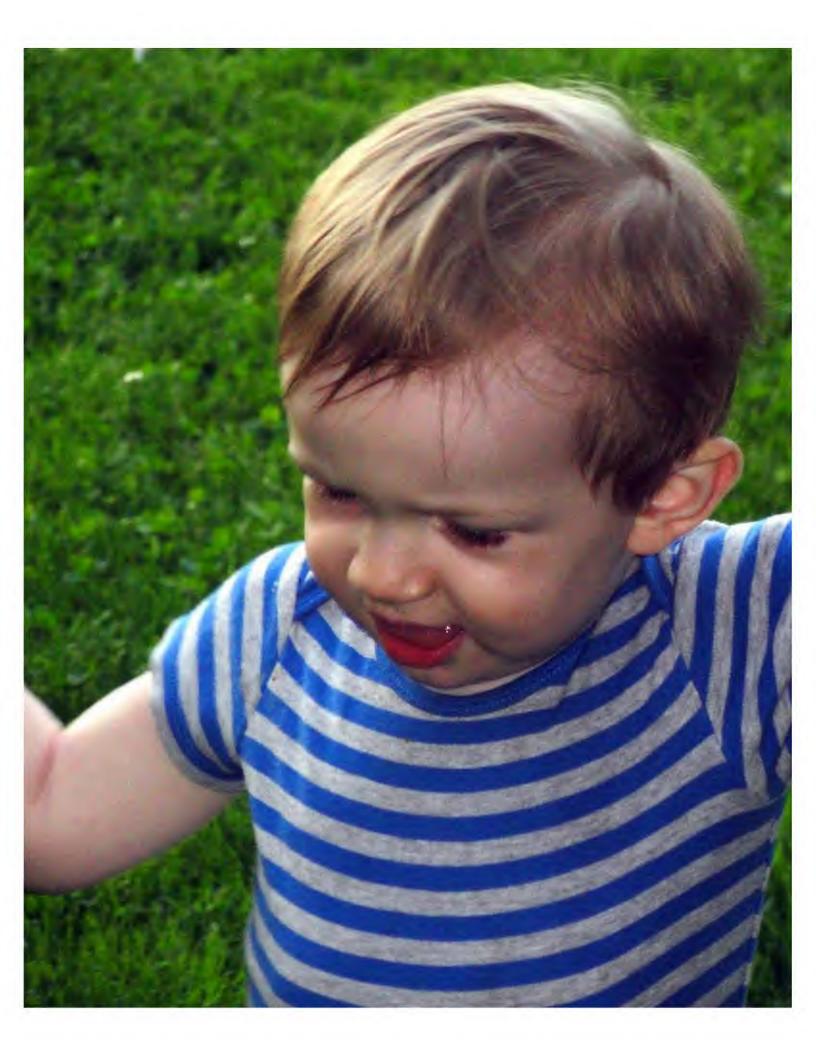

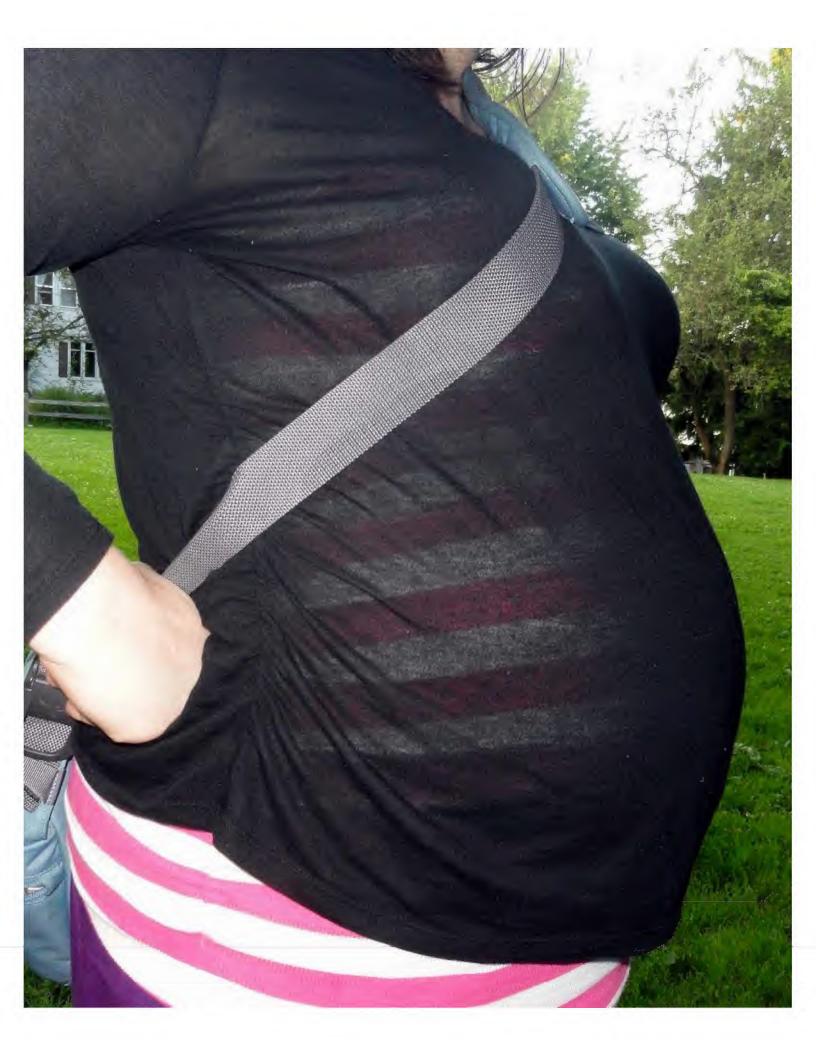

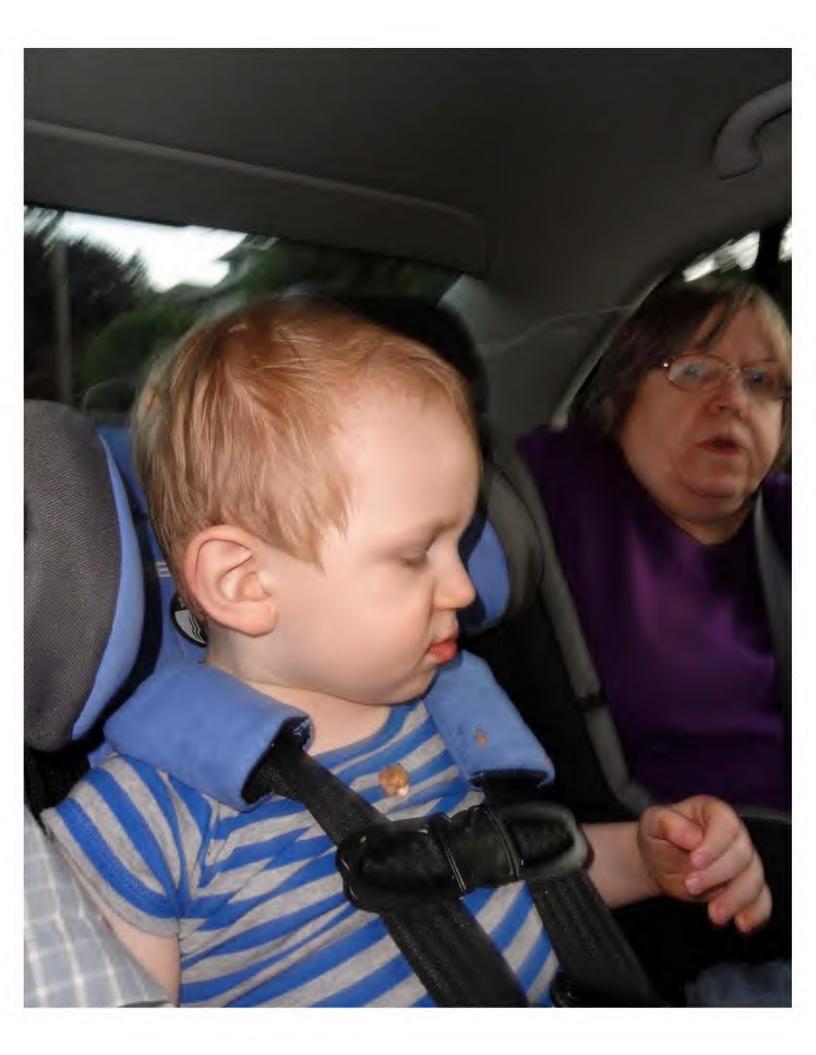

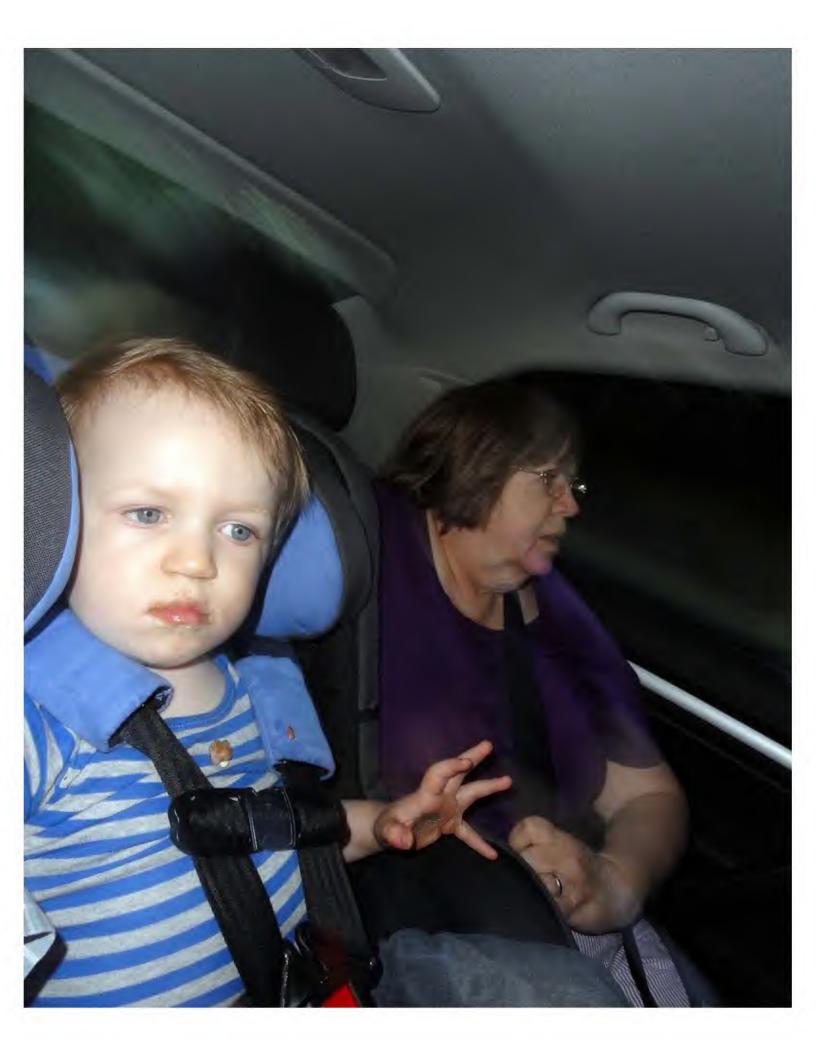

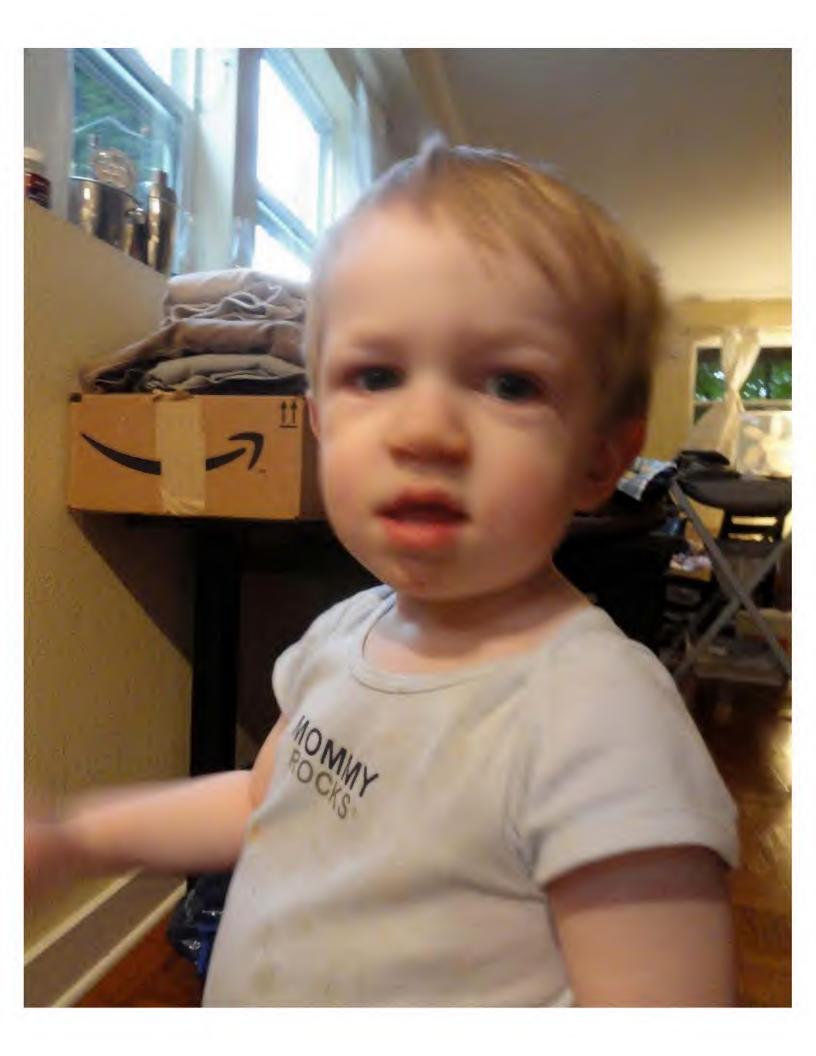

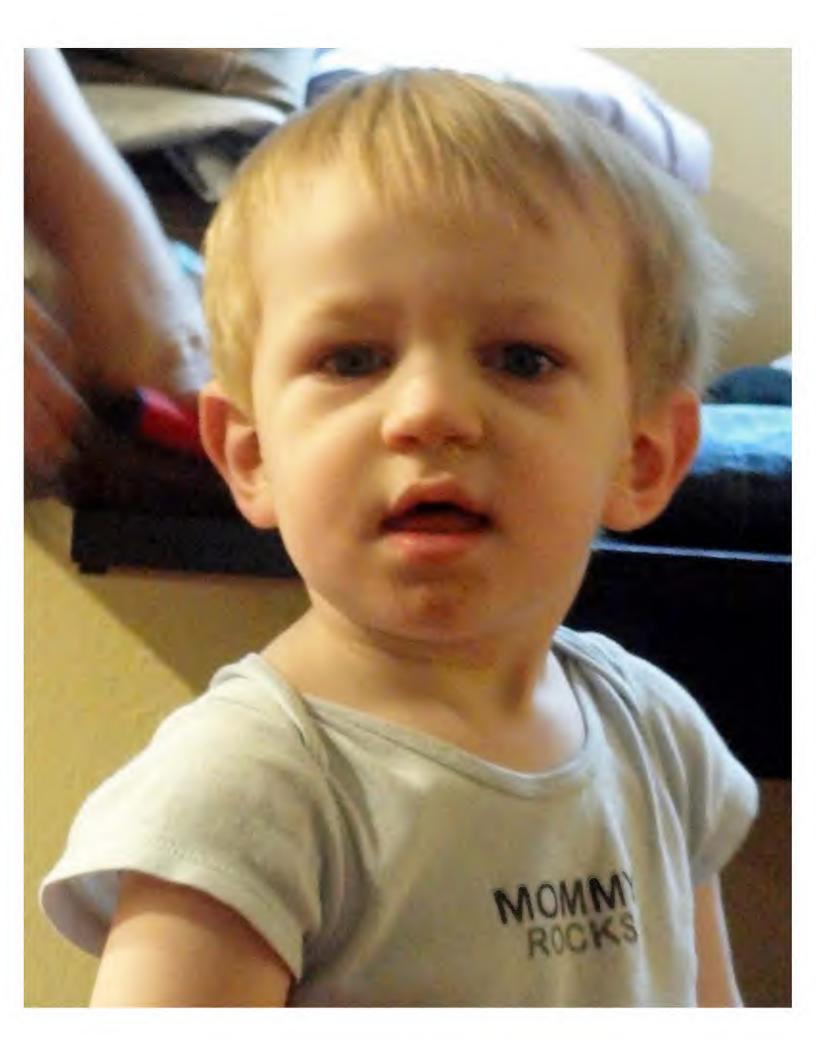

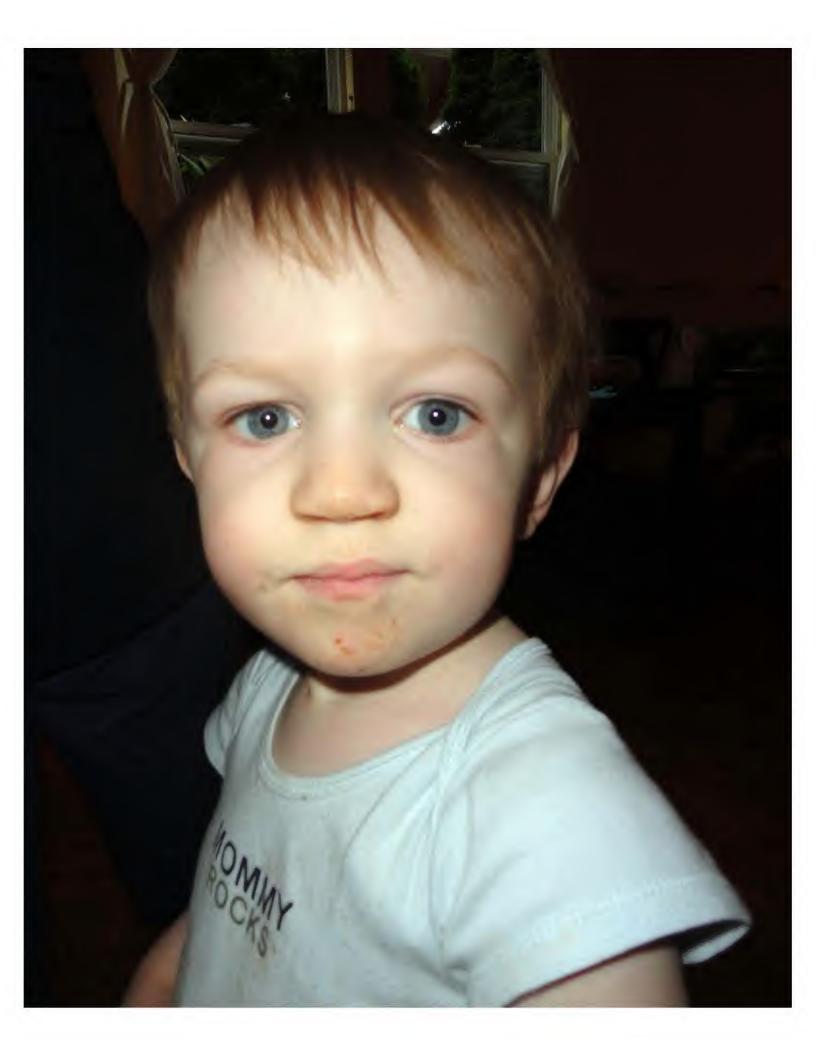

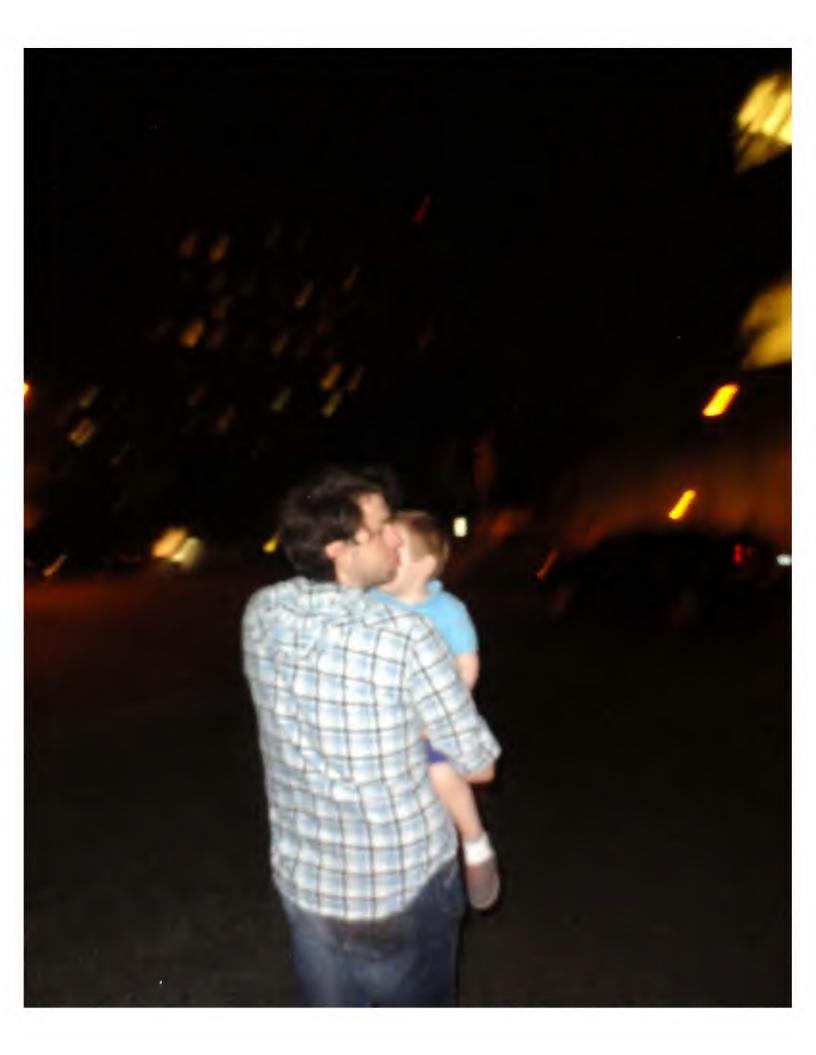

Emergency ->
SWEDISH
Night Entrance ->

